MAHR (DOWRY)

Mahr is the consideration for the contract of marriage between the parties. It may be in the form of money and/or goods given by the Bridegroom to the Bride in consideration for the marriage. It is an essential element of Muslim marriage and is exclusively reserved for the use of the female partner. Payment of Mahr can be immediate (prompt), or deferred.

Mu'ajjal (Immediate/Prompt): This means the total amount of Mahr payable by the Bridegroom at the time of signing the marriage contract.

Mu'wajjal (Deferred): This means the portion of the Mahr which is payable to the Bride at a specified point in the marriage or at the time of dissolution of the marriage through divorce or death of the husband. Any deferred Mahr that remains unpaid at the time of dissolution becomes a debt against the former husband's assets.
